THE MINDTRAP

We create turnkey escape room experiences. From idea to installation, our team has a remarkable experience in creating fascinating experiences for the audience, resulting in happy owners.

Our philosophy is to create 360° experiences, where the scenery, the lighting and the sound direction are captivating the players. Our props and theming are all handmade and unique, planned for each specific scenario. In addition, we stand out from the competition with our original operations software. The automated connection between the game props and our cloud interface will elevate the hint experience for escape room players, whilst saving up expenses for owners.

We provide two types of solutions for our customers. We either equip businesses with our room parts and operations software, or, along with the rooms, deliver The MindTrap, which is our branded business solution - a well-established escape room brand name in Southeast Europe including a variety of website, booking, sales & marketing solutions.

BOUTIQUE ESCAPE ROOMS

What we stand out for is the handmade quality with which all of our props and decoration are being made. From carpenters to painters & artists, we pay attention that all details are fitting perfectly to the overall room theme. Being made in hand, our props are tested in all stages of production for their quality & endurance.

The gameplay of our escape rooms is based on the principle of broad accessibility. Our escape rooms can be played by a range of age groups equally without reducing the game experience for anyone. The games mostly follow a linear-solving progression. No padlocks are used in the game process, making the experience more impressive. Adding the auto hint and operations software in the equation results in some amazing 3rd-generation escape room experiences. Boutique, well-thought and handmade escape experiences.

A QUICK PROCESS

Behind our escape rooms is an experienced team of 25 people. Artists, decorators, painters, electricians, constructors, game designers, all work together to deliver escape rooms with passion, hand work, and of course in a time-efficient manner.

Our industrial space is hosting both the heavy and elegant construction of our products, along with our power equipment such as laser cutters and 3D printers.

The above combination puts us in a position to deliver premium work in as quick as 20 days from agreement.

Immediately upon the agreement, we begin constructing the props & decoration of your new escape room order.

We then ship all the elements to your destination. This can be done in as early as 20 days!

Our electricians & wall artists arrive first to shape the room. After that, our operations team will come to install all the game props & elements.

After extensive testing, we deliver you with your new room!

OUR ESCAPE ROOM OPERATIONS SOFTWARE

Running an escape room business can be a demanding challenge. Within a constantly changing industry, businesses should be able to adapt to recent technologies and manage to produce the desired profit.

This is why we, at Intelligent Entertainment, have developed a unique operations software for our escape rooms.

Our multifunctional software, thanks to advanced electronics solutions, always understands the progress of players and automatically provides hints depending on the puzzle players are at that moment, through interactive touch screens placed inside the rooms. Moreover, through our software, business owners can run a series of special effects, lighting, sounds & music, through an IoT-like environment.

All in all, our software will minimize staff expenses while maintaining customer experience to excellent levels.

OPERATION SOFTWARE

View of the game master operations software.

Thanks to the automation board, every time the team pushes the help button, an audio hint library generates the appropriate hint, depending on which puzzle the team is on at this moment.

All the rooms puzzles are wired, ending up to our main electrical board.

A friendly operations software is available for game masters, where they can view the teams progress but also intervene manually when necessary.

Main electrical board.

Our electrical board connects the room elements with automation boards that regulate the flow of automated actions, according to the game progress.

A dark, atmospheric room with a large wooden cabinet, a clock, and a mounted head. The room is dimly lit, with a warm, yellowish glow. The walls are textured and appear aged. A large, ornate wooden cabinet with intricate carvings and symbols is the central focus. To the left, a clock with a dark face and white numbers is mounted on the wall. To the right, a large, pale, and somewhat grotesque head is mounted on the wall. The floor is covered with a patterned rug. The overall mood is mysterious and slightly unsettling.

WHAT IS AGENT FACTORY ?

Agent Factory is a new and groundbreaking entertainment game for groups of people.

A team will challenge themselves in a series of interactive tasks that combine fitness, observation, action & handiness!

HOW IT IS PLAYED?

1

The players receive their game wristbands. They will use them to enter and exit the missions. When they are outside the door of an available mission, they can play!

When the players enter the room, they choose difficulty and the time begins!

2

The team must try to win in 3-6 minutes. If they succeed, they can move to a different one. If they fail, they can reset the difficulty and start again!

3

4

The team can see their points live in scoreboard screens and compete with other teams for glory!

HOW IT WORKS?

Agent Factory uses a custom and sophisticated combination of diverse technologies & software. A blend of Raspberry Pi, RFID & Arduino with IoT messaging protocols & operations, displayed on enticing motion designs and HTML-based software, all serving the purpose of a breathtaking and always automated game experience.

AGENT FIRE, SPIDERS NEST.

Touch screens provide a fun and reliable User Interface, as players can operate them quickly and make decisions, or get informed real-time, enhancing the game experience.

A main server runs the operations and connects all the different parts, using an immense yet time-efficient number of IoT messaging protocols.

A combination of Raspberry Pi and Arduino hardware runs the automation inside the missions. The RPi communicates with the "outside world" to exchange vital information.

The RFID wristbands can connect with specific customer profiles, trigger actions and hold information regarding the individual's performance.

AN INDUSTRIAL VERSION

AGENT FACTORY INDUSTRIAL

AGENT FACTORY INDUSTRIAL is a breakthrough version of entertainment. Staged in a large, uninterrupted space (warehouse, mall), Agent Factory Industrial has the exact same gameplay and features with the standard game version. What makes it different is the absence of ceilings and drywalls, and their replacement with iron bars & nets, resulting in an open & transparent game arena.

The above characteristics make the Industrial version of Agent Factory easier to install and move to a different location in future, while it is more COVID-safe because of the space arrangement.

WHY TO CREATE AGENT FACTORY INDUSTRIAL

No drywalls and heavy constructional work for the owners. No need to work with 3rd and 4th party vendors.

Easy to rearrange the missions and create new ones, thanks to the lack of solid walls and the mobility of iron bars and nets used. Easy to relocate to another venue.

Increased social distance, ventilation & open space, marking the Agent Factory Industrial as Covid-safer than other indoor activities.

100% Turnkey solution. Game missions, Operations Software & Loyalty Platform, venue construction, all in the most competitive turnkey service price.

No need for extra costly fire protection rules; the absence of drywalls makes the compliance to health & safety rules easier, quicker and less budget consuming.

Less consuming ventilation system. The open wide space and the absence of small mini rooms closed behind drywalls makes the ventilation cheaper to operate.

Increased venue scenery value. The visitors will become a part of a wide and captivating industrial theme. The transparency of the missions will build up the excitement to play more.

The iron bars and nets instead of closed drywalls costs less and is created by us. The ventilation system, fire policy are also cost and time effective. That's why Agent Factory Industrial is a lucrative solution for your venue!

THE GAME

The Agent Factory missions are divided in four categories, according to the game genre the teams will find in each.

The symbol of fire is associated with energy, activity & strength. So are the Fire Missions at the Maze; The teams will stretch their physical limits to the max!

Air is identified as the symbol of intelligence. The players will surely need plenty of air in order to think right and act properly while playing the brain & intelligence missions of The Maze.

A symbol related with flexibility. This missions category at The Maze will require the best out of their skills, handiness and accuracy from players!

Our earth missions are under completion and they will be available soon, combining elements from the above types of games, in some extra-fun and spacious missions that will be considered as masterpieces of entertainment!
